

One hundred per cent of England and Wales are threatened with the fluoridation of drinking water.

Since fluoridated water is a medicine, we will have to drink a compulsory medicine without us being asked to give our informed consent.

We will be paying for medicine when it should be potable drinking water.

This cannot be allowed to happen. It's symptomatic of the State's ambitions for totalitarianism.

Please sign the Parliament petition and share it with all your contacts.

<https://petition.parliament.uk/petitions/597714>